DATE OF CONTENT. DATE PREPARED 1. February 1954 This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprises was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence hed to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid procuutionary necessars ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. The dishelters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/K 63). Cone new shelter was built there. A total of about AC energoncy air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were rade in Negytanissa (Y 4/A 26) and Zelaegerateg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the leyout of new air raid shelters. Plans swellable from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters but the coulitiv of air raid shelters the insufficient equipment of the raid shelters in industrial plants had to continue during air roid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being borbed.
DATE OF CONTENT. 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build as air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dustrial cheeres in Scherows of the Ministers is sued and the Council of Ministers is sued and order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build as air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid procount once as reasonable to the two ministers in Soprom (P 48/X 63). One new shelter was built there. A total of chout 4C energoncy air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dualling houses in Soprom. Similar observations were rade in lagykenisse (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerazeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Flanning Fureau did not receive directives for the layout of new sir raid shelters, Plans swellable from World War III were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being borbed.		CLASSIFICATION.	Parketing to the control of the control	TON
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED DATE PREPARED 12 February 1954 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air read shelter. Air reid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air reid procentionary neasures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942 reid shelters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48% 63). One new shelter was built there. A total of atout AC emergency air reid shelters were neally built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were reade in Negykaniese (Y 4/A 26) and Zelaegerozeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the Layout of new air reid shelters. Plans we liable from World Mar II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air reid shelters had to be splinter-proof and gas-proof. ws not very impressive. In the custive of sir reid shelters was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of cir reid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air reid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being borbed.	COUNTRY_	Hungary	REPORT		-
PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED DATE PREPARED 12 February 1954 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air reid shelter. Air reid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorpored all sir reid precentionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942 reid shelters were regained in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48% 63). One new shelter was built there. A total of about 40 emergency air reid shelters were neadly built or regained in dwelling houses in Bopron. Indiar observations were made in Magykanizas (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerozeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air reid shelters. Plans wellable from World Mar II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air reid shelters had to be splinter-proof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. In the custive of its reid shelters was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of cir reid shelters in industrial enterprises was notive ted by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air reid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being borbed.	TOPIC	Hungarian Air Reid Precautionary Ma	ea sures
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 12 February 1954 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and elerged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the thon Hungarian Government in 1942. 1. The Hungarian Government in 1942. 2. The Hungarian Hunting Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of now air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Magykanissa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerage (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of now air raid shelters. Plans available from World far II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. The cuality of air raid shelters received in raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. The cuality of air raid shelters received in raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. The cuality of air raid shelters are not were the cuality of air raid shelters are not were the springs and would only to interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	DECOMPOSITION OF THE PROPERTY	2 TOORESCENT TO STORM WITH THE PROPERTY CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERT	E ANNERO E ANNA MERCE PERSON PROPERTY AND ANNO PROPERTY AND AND ANNO PROPERTY AND AND ANNO PROPERTY AND	6/6/198	a Light while with
DATE ORTAINED DATE PREPARED 12 February 1954 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & WPE) This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in evistence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the thon Hungarian Government in 1942. The thin Hungarian Government in 1942. Che new shelter was built there. A total of about 40 energency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron (P 45% 63). Che new shelter was built there. A total of about 40 energency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Magykaniwas (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerozeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Flanning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of now air raid shelters. Plans available from World far II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the newessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	EVALUATION	PLACE OB	TAINED	man year commence of the control of the last of the la	Total Carlotte Carlotte
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid procoutionary measures ordered by the thon Hungarian Government in 1942. The Hungarian Covernment in 1942. The deliters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 6). One new shelter was built there. A total of cbout 4C emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were rade in Nagykanisa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new sair raid shelters. Flans available from World Mar II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bonted.	DATE OF C	DNTENT		Management and law communications are not a special state of the passent of American are conserved.	25X
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air reid shelter. Air reid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air reid precentionery neasures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprises incorporated all air reid precentionery neasures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. The Hungarian Council of Ministers is sued and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air reid shelters in Sopron (P 48/X 63). Cone new shelter was built there. A total of about 40 emergency air radd shelters were newly built or reprired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were rade in Negykaniwa (Y 4/A 26) and Zelaegerozeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World the II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. The cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid termings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being borbed.	DATE OBTA	NED	DATE PREPARED 12	February 1954	-
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air reid shelter. Air reid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air reid preceutionery measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. The Hungarian Hungarian Government in 1942. The Hungarian Hungarian Hungarian Government in 1942. The Hungarian Hungarian Hungarian Government in 1942. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives in Sopron. Airilar observations were made in Nagykanissa (Y 4/A 26) and Zelaegerozeg (Y 4/V 10). The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World Wir II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. The cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being borbed.				achderistans) generalizeriseriseriseris (pr. pr. 143) (pp. pr. pr. 144) (pp. pr. pr. 144) (pp. pr. pr. 144) (pp. pr. pr. pr. pr. pr. pr. pr. pr. pr.
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all sir raid processionary necessary ordered by the them Hungarian Government in 1942. air raid shelters were required in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). Can new shelter was built there. A total of about 4C energency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykaniesa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerazeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of now air raid shelters. Plans available from World Mar II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. the cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. the cuality of air raid shelters are in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only to interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	2 11	1
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the them Hungarian Government in 1942. air raid shelters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). Come new shelter was built there. A total of about 40 emergency air raid shelters were meally built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykanissa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerozeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarien Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World for II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. the cuality of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.					-
1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid procentionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. In raid shelters were reprired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 43/X 63). One new shelter was built there. A total of about 40 emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Magykaniasa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerazeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Eureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World Var II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	KEMARKS_	MECHANISTICA (PER A PER	र पुरस्कानेका तक स्थापनामा त्रांत व्यवस्थानका अन्य सम्बद्धान स्थापनामा सम्बद्धान स्थापनामा स्थापनामा स्थापनामा	applant tyresty, i folge gettingen i høye, sik ført i hyr i høn, neptommenne har desplanten det utbetting til e	AND LOCAL SAME
1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid proceutionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. In raid shelters were reprired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 43/X 63). One new shelter was built there. A total of about 46 emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Magykaninsa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerozeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of now air raid shelters. Plans available from World Var II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the newsesity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	9	This is LINEVALUATI	ED Information	waters to the second and the second s	en ober extraces
1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. air raid shelters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). Che new shelter was built there. A total of about 4C emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were rade in Nagykaniwae (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. the cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. the insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.		THIS IS UNEVALUATE		manners traductive est annexe, amenica van sign v.a. v.). Et verk vichtlich demisse prossipatione angestelle av 125 v.a.c.	RAME OF PARTY
1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. air raid shelters were reprired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). Che new shelter was built there. A total of about 4C emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykaniwsa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. the cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. the insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.			namentumuminaksistyön kin yöhyimilikki olikus omatty. Styryntoksi Sontyenistiksi appinsisty-dell 1975-yyl	garigancia accessos epitos selectione handicallo mentro (), i cana sociolado («Es com classicano» per ma aspecienciado
1. The Hungarian Council of Ministers issued an order, according to which each industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. air raid shelters were reprired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). Che new shelter was built there. A total of about 4C emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykaniwa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerozeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Eureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. the cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. the insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only to interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.					2
industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. Taid shelters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). One new shelter was built there. A total of about 4C emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykaniasa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Eureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. The cuality of air raid shelters the cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.					X:
industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. raid shelters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). Che new shelter was built there. A total of about 4C emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykaniasa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Eureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World Var II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. the cuality of air raid shelters are not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.		(A)
industrial enterprise was held to build an air raid shelter. Air raid shelters already in existence had to be reconditioned and enlarged. The government decree incorporated all air raid precautionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. Taid shelters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). One new shelter was built there. A total of about 4C emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykaniasa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. The cuality of air raid shelters the cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	1	The Hungarian Council of Minister	es issued an order, acc	ording to which each
government decree incorporated all sir raid precautionary measures ordered by the then Hungarian Government in 1942. raid shelters were repaired in all industrial enterprises in Sopron (P 48/X 63). One new shelter was built there. A total of about 40 emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were rade in Nagykaniasa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinter-proof and gas-proof. WES not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.		industrial enterprise was held to	build an air raid she	lter. Air raid che new shelter was built there. A total of about 40 emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykaniasa (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Bureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinter-proof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only te interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.		government decree incorporated al	l sir raid precautions	ry measures ordered
One new shelter was built there. A total of about 4C emergency air raid shelters were newly built or repaired in dwalling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykaniza (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Eureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinter-proof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was rotivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.		by the then Hungarian Government	in 1942.) 。2 shelters were newly built or repaired in dwelling houses in Sopron. Similar observations were made in Nagykanizae (Y 4/A 26) and Zalaegerszeg (Y 4/V 10). 2. The Hungarian Planning Eureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinterproof and gas-proof. Was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.		One new shelter was built there.	A total of about 40 e	mergency air raid	, .
2. The Hungarian Planning Eureau did not receive directives for the layout of new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinter-proof and gas-proof. The cuality of air raid shelters was not very impressive. Insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.		shelters were newly built or repa	ired in dwelling house	s in Sopron. Similar new air raid shelters. Plans available from World War II were used instead. The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinter- proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was motivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.
The only binding directive was that air raid shelters had to be splinter- proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was motivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.				s for the layout of proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	2.	The Hungarian Planning Bureau did	l not receive directive	T wome need instead.
insufficient equipment of eir raid shelters in industrial enterprises was notivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai	ilable from World War I	I were used instead.
motivated by the necessity that work in industrial plants had to continue during air raid warnings and would only be interrupted when the town involved was actually being bombed.	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air raid shalters	2
actually being bombed.	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the	2
	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air rai motivated by the necessity that w	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality Id shelters in industri work in industrial plan	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri
Comments The report supplements previous information.	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality Id shelters in industri work in industrial plan	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri
Comments The report supplements previous information.	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air raid motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality Id shelters in industri work in industrial plan	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri
	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air rai motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only actually being bombed.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality id shelters in industrial work in industrial plan the interrupted when th	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri e town involved was	ng
	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air rai motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only actually being bombed.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality id shelters in industrial work in industrial plan the interrupted when th	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri e town involved was	ng
	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air rai motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only actually being bombed.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality id shelters in industrial work in industrial plan the interrupted when th	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri e town involved was	ng
	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air rai motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only actually being bombed.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality id shelters in industrial work in industrial plan the interrupted when th	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri e town involved was	ng
	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air rai motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only actually being bombed.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality id shelters in industrial work in industrial plan the interrupted when th	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri e town involved was	2 ng 2
	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air rai motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only actually being bombed.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality id shelters in industrial work in industrial plan the interrupted when th	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri e town involved was	ng
	2.	new air raid shelters. Plans avai The only binding directive was the proof and gas-proof. was not very impressive. insufficient equipment of air rai motivated by the necessity that wair raid warnings and would only actually being bombed.	ilable from World War I nat air raid shelters h the cuality id shelters in industrial work in industrial plan the interrupted when th	I were used instead. Ed to be splinter- of air reid shelters the al enterprises was ts had to continue duri e town involved was	ng

25X1

CLASSIFICATION

COMMINENTAL